Mark 3:20-35

Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.

Reflection

Whenever something goes wrong, there is a tendency to blame somebody else for the predicament that we find ourselves in: "it wasn't my fault"; "he / she made me do it", is often heard whenever the situation arises. In the First Reading from Genesis (3:9-15"), we hear once again about the "fall out" from Grace that Adam and Eve suffered. Adam blamed Eve for his mistakes. Eve blamed the Serpent. Whatever the rights and wrongs, mistakes were made, both turned away from God's grace and God's command. And although temptation, in the form of the snake in the Genesis story, exists today as it did then, none of us should ever be afraid or lack the resolution to own up to our mistakes whenever they are made. We all make them. Admitting our mistakes can sometimes make us vulnerable and isolated. But there is hope.

In today's Gospel, Jesus faced misunderstanding and rejection amongst the religious leaders of His time and even amongst those closest to Him. But with Him, we can have confidence to turn to God and the new 'family' that Jesus established of believers in faith. Pointing us towards God, Jesus provides us all with the blessing of His family and is the path to true acceptance and strength in our human weakness.

General Election 2024

Thornbury Churches Together (TCT) are arranging hustings to give those voting a chance to hear from the candidates hoping to be the next MP for Thornbury and Yate. The hustings will take place at the Thornbury Baptist Church on Saturday 22nd June at 7.00pm (NOT the URC as previously advertised). The event will be live streamed and if you would like to attend, please see the details on the CTK Church Noticeboard. (Email: thornburyelection2024@gmail.com). CAFOD are encouraging people to put their views across as Catholics. If you would like to help with this, please contact Mark on Tel. 01454 419439. Thank you.

Children's Liturgy ("Little Church")

The next Children's Liturgy ("Little Church") will take place during the 10.30am Mass at CTK this Sunday 9th June.

Going Green

This weekend, the Church returns to "Ordinary Time", represented by the liturgical colour Green. Green speaks to us of life and of growth. Rather than just seeing ordinary time as a day-to-day season, we can journey through it inviting the tender, compassionate, healing, forgiving Lord to draw us, through ordinary things, into the extraordinary life of God's kingdom. It is precisely in the ordinariness and every-day-ness that we are called to be proclaimers of God's goodness, of God's justice, of God's beauty, of God's joy and of God's peace.

200 Club
